THE BIG SMALL SHOW

A MEETING SPACE FOR BRANDS AND BUYERS

Tailor-made for the broader U.S. market, Kid's Hub New York brings the can't miss labels from the kids' fashion and lifestyle industry together in a space full of creativity and discovery.

Over 260 brands gather twice a year under the roofs of The Altman Building and the Metropolitan Pavilion in the heart of New York City to present their Autumn/Winter and Spring/Summer collections.

By exhibiting Playtime & Kid's Hub brands at the same show, buyers are able to explore a broader offer that meets all their needs. This modern approach makes their buying experience more efficient than ever, and has solidified Playtime & Kid's Hub New York's position as the largest and most important kid's fashion and lifestyle trade show in the United States. With the diverse collections from these two complementary sectors of the children's market, buyers find everything they are looking for in one space as they explore the aisles of the only show to exhibit such an artful, well-rounded selection.
